

2007-2008 Verification Worksheet

Federal Student Aid Programs

Your application was selected for review in a process called "verification." In this process, your school will be comparing information from your application with signed copies of your 2006 federal tax forms (and your spouse's if you are married, or parents' if you are considered dependent for federal aid purposes). The law says we must ask you for this information before awarding Federal aid. If there are differences between your application and supporting documents, corrections may need to be submitted. Try to complete verification as soon as possible, so that your financial aid won't be delayed. Your school must review the requested information, before any federal aid will be released to you.

What you should do:

1. Collect your (and your spouse's or parents') financial documents (signed Federal income tax forms, W-2, etc.).
2. Talk to your financial aid administrator if you have questions about completing this worksheet.
3. Complete all sections and sign the worksheet - you (and your parent if appropriate).
4. Take the completed worksheet, tax forms, and any other documents to your financial aid administrator.
5. Your financial aid administrator will compare information on these documents and make corrections if necessary.
